→ Application Procedures

Step 1: Take the China Scholastic Competency Assessment (CSCA) and obtain a valid score report

Undergraduate applicants must sit for the China Scholastic Competency Assessment (CSCA), organized by the China Scholarship Council of the Ministry of Education. Applicants must submit their CSCA score report to the Guizhou University International Student Service System no later than June 10, 2026. Details regarding test dates and contents can be found on the official CSCA website (www.csc.cn). The test subjects are listed in the Guizhou University 2026 Undergraduate Program Catalogue for International Students (<https://cie.gzu.edu.cn/2025/1017/c8268a259383/page.htm>).

Step 2: Applicants for the Chinese Government Scholarship must complete the online application in the CSC system

Register and log in to the Chinese Government Scholarship Information System (<https://studyinchina.csc.edu.cn/#/login>), complete the application form, and upload the required documents. The program category must be Category B, and the institution code for Guizhou University is 10657. Review all information carefully and click “Submit” Only applications in the “Submitted” status will be considered valid.

Step 3: Complete the application in the Guizhou University International Student Service System

Applicants must register on the Guizhou University International Student Service System (<https://gzu.at0086.cn/StuApplication/Login.aspx>). After logging in, select “Online Application → Guizhou University International Student Scholarship → Student Category → Language of Instruction and College → Major and Research Direction”. Choose one major only, then complete the form and upload all required documents (see Section 8 for document requirements). After completion, the applicant must click the “Submit” button. Please note that the choice of major must be made carefully. In principle, major changes after enrollment are not permitted, and related requests will not be approved.

Step 4: Admission and Enrollment

The scholarship evaluation and admission process requires several months. Applicants may check their admission status through the Guizhou University International Student Service System. Once admitted, students must register strictly within the time specified by the University. Enrollment will take place in late August or early September 2026, as indicated in the admission notice. At registration, original copies of the highest diploma, academic transcripts, Foreigner Physical Examination Form, certificate of no criminal record, and language proficiency certificates will be verified.

Notice: All operations from Step 2 to Step 3 require close attention to email notifications. Please ensure that you follow the email instructions and complete the corresponding application procedures within the designated deadline.
