貴州大學
GUIZHOU UNIVERSITY

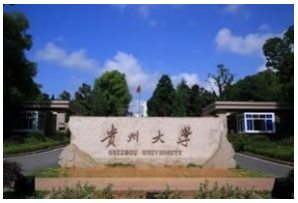

Guizhou University

Brochure for Prospective International Students

- A Centennial University
- Extensive International Exchange and Cooperation
- Comprehensive Curriculum and Excellent Faculty
- Programs for International Students

A Centennial University

Founded in 1902, Guizhou University (hereinafter as GZU), with the motto of "Illustrious virtue, utmost goodness, extensive learning and earnest practice", is persistently committed to be a leading university with regional characteristics that cherishes high quality education as the fundamental and serves the economic and social development of Guizhou Province and southwest China.

GZU is a key "211 Project" university co-built by the Ministry of Education of the People's Republic of China and the People's Government of Guizhou Province. In 2012, it was listed as one of the 14 member universities of the Middle and Western China Comprehensive Strength Improvement Project. In May 2016, GZU was included in the National Key University Construction Project of "One Province One University".

With 40 colleges under its administration, GZU offers 137 bachelor's programs, 197 master's programs and 48 doctoral programs, covering 12 branches of learning including philosophy, economics, laws, liberal arts, history, education, science, engineering, agriculture, medicine, administration, and art. At present, GZU has 54,124 full-time students and 3,950 faculty and staff members, and 2,493 of them are full-time faculty members.

Extensive International Exchange and Cooperation

GZU vigorously develops international cooperation and exchange. So far, it has established cooperative and exchange relations with more than 140 academic institutions in over 40 countries and regions.

GZU is a Demonstration Base for Cultivating Foreign Students authorized by the Ministry of Education, a Base of International Cooperation in Science and Technology authorized by the Ministry of Science and Technology, a Center for ASEAN Studies, an ASEAN Students Service center, an institution offering Chinese Government Scholarship, Confucius Institute Scholarship, Guizhou Provincial Scholarship and Guizhou University Scholarship for international students. GZU also plays active roles in IAUP, AUAP, AUN and other international organizations. Over 900 international students from nearly 50 countries or regions registered in GZU in for long or short term studies in 2017.

GZU has successfully hosted or co-hosted nine sessions of China-ASEAN Educational Cooperation Week since 2008; in 2019, it established Guizhou's first Confucius Institute in Presbyterian College, U.S.

Comprehensive Curriculum and Excellent Faculty

GZU has been accepting international students since the 1980s. The College of International Education (hereinafter as CIE) of GZU boasts a team of highly skillful and experienced teachers and an efficient course system. CIE offers structured Chinese language courses and various characteristic culture courses to international students at beginner, basic, intermediate and advanced levels. Besides, the College organizes regular extracurricular activities to immerse international students in Chinese culture and Guizhou ethnic minority cultures. The Chinese courses designed by CIE enable the international students to access the many top-notch degree programs offered by the University.

Programs for International Students

Non-degree Programs

Type	Description
Long-term Chinese Language Program	One-semester or one-year program offering regular Chinese language and culture courses
Short-term Cultural Experiencing Program	Specially designed programs ranging from 2 weeks to 3 months featuring language and cultural courses plus cultural experiencing trips and activities
Visiting Student Program	Access to certain bachelor's, master's and doctoral courses for non-degree purpose

Degree Programs

Level	Minimum Entry Requirements	Available Programs
Bachelor	Senior high school graduates, HSK-Level 4	137 undergraduate programs open for international students
Master	Bachelor's degree holders, HSK-Level 4	197 master's degree programs open for international students
Doctor	Master's degree holders, HSK-Level 5	48 doctoral programs open for international doctoral candidates

Note: The general language of instruction of the degree programs is Chinese, requiring HSK level-4 Chinese proficiency. Students not meeting this requirement shall take a one-year elementary Chinese study at GZU and pass the required HSK exam before entering major study. For detailed degree program lists please contact us.

Applicable Scholarships

Category	Coverage
Chinese Government Scholarship	A fee waiver for registration and tuition; Free on-campus accommodation Medical insurance Monthly living allowance: RMB3,000 for master's students and RMB3,500 for doctoral students
Confucius Institute Scholarship	A fee waiver for registration and tuition; Free on-campus accommodation; Medical insurance; Monthly living allowance: RMB2,500
Guizhou Provincial Government Scholarship	Full scholarships or fee waivers for tuition
Guizhou University Scholarship	A graded fee waiver for tuition; Special grants for excellent students or special contributions

Tuition, Application Fee and Insurance

Student Type	Tuition
Chinese Language Student	RMB11,000 / year RMB6,000 / semester RMB5,000/ 3 months
Undergraduate	Arts: RMB14,000 / year Science: RMB15,500 / year Art or Sports: RMB21,000 / year
Master	Arts: RMB18,000 / year Science: RMB20,000 / year Art or Sports: RMB27,000 / year
Doctor	Arts: RMB22,000 / year Science: RMB24,500 / year
General Visiting Student	Arts: RMB14,000 / year Science: RMB15,500 / year
Advanced Visiting Student	Arts: RMB18,000 / year Science: RMB20,000 / year
Short-term Cultural Student	Subject to the requirements of the group (minimum 10 students)

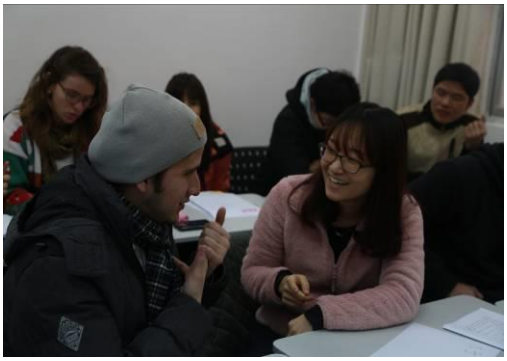

- Newly registered students need to pay RMB500 per person as application fee and RMB800 per year or RMB400 per semester for health insurance.

Chinese Language and Culture Program

Compulsory Courses	Optional Courses	Extracurricular Activities
Comprehensive Chinese	China Tourist Culture	Traditional Chinese Festival Celebrations
Chinese Speaking	Chinese Calligraphy	Art or Sports Activities
Chinese Listening	Guizhou Folk Culture and Life	Language Partner Programs
Chinese Intensive Reading	Learn Chinese and Know Guizhou by Videos	Season Excursions
Chinese Extensive Reading	A Taste of Guizhou	Cultural Tours
Chinese Writing	Historic and Cultural landscapes of Guizhou	Visiting Museums or Attending Exhibitions
HSK Tutorial	Chinese Cuisine	Social Activities for International Students

Note: Compulsory courses account for 15-20 hours per week. Every semester 2-3 selected optional courses are opened. Every month 1 or 2 cultural or social activities are specially conducted for international students, and every semester 1 or 2 excursions or cultural tours specially organized for international students.

Application & Admission

The applicants shall apply to us directly by submitting the following application materials (completed in English or Chinese):

- Guizhou University Application Form
- Valid passport front-page photocopy
- CV or resume (passport-size photo attached)
- Notarized highest diploma photocopy
- Foreigner physical examination record
- Sponsorship certificate (certificate of deposit, RMB20,000 per year or equivalent)
- Students attending degree programs also need to provide:
  i. For undergraduate: a recommendation letter by an associate professor or above, senior high school transcripts and a study plan.
  For master's student: recommendation letters by two associate professors or above, transcripts for the bachelor's degree and a study plan. Copies of published academic papers or research achievements, if any, are encouraged.
  For doctoral student: recommendation letters by one professor and one associate professor or above, transcripts for the master's degree, the abstract of the master's thesis, and a study plan. Copies of published academic papers or research achievements, if any, are encouraged.
  ii. HSK Score Report (students without the Score Report shall take an one-year elementary Chinese study until passing the required HSK test)

Note: Application for degree programs is open until June 30 every year; application for Chinese Language and Culture Program is open until June 30 for the fall semester and until November 30 for the spring semester. The applicants need to send the application documents by post an by e-mail to us or apply online by this website: http://gzu.at0086.cn/StuApplication/Login.aspx before the deadline to initiate an application.

College of International Education will send the JW202 Visa Application Form, Acceptance Letter and other enrollment papers to the admitted students 2 months after successful applications. The accepted students shall apply for an X1 or X2 Student Visa for entry with the JW202 Form.

Registration

1. The admitted students shall register on time in person at College of International Education with the originals of Letter of Acceptance, Foreigner Physical Examination Form and other application documents;

2. After registration, the students shall hold the Foreigner Physical Examination Form and all attached reports to Guizhou Quarantine Bureau for health verification;

3. Office for International Relations and College of International Education shall assist the students to apply for residence permit, bank card, campus E-card, etc.

Accommodation

International Students' Dorm Buildings are equipped with showers, bathrooms, refrigerators, heating appliances, and public laundry facilities. The accommodation fees are:

1. RMB350 per person per month for accommodation in a triple suite (3 separate beds with shared living room and bathroom)
2. RMB500 per person per month for accommodation in a double suite (2 separate bedrooms with shared bathroom)
3. RMB800 per month for a standard single room (with private bathroom and kitchen)

Food, Insurance & Medical Care

- Four cafeterias (including a halal canteen) are open to international students on campus (about RMB10 for each meal). Besides, various Chinese restaurants and western-style fast food restaurants are situated nearby the campus.
- Scholarship students enjoy free medical insurance. Self-sponsored students shall purchase medical insurance in China as required.
- Medical services are offered at the University infirmary and at Huaxi Hospital , both of which are only a few blocks from the student housing.

A Glimpse of Guizhou

Guizhou University is located in Guiyang, the capital city of Guizhou Province and a major city in southwestern China. Guiyang is dubbed "a shinning pearl" on the Yunnan-Guizhou Plateau. With an average altitude of 1,000 meters, the City is known for its agreeable warm winter and cool summer, with the summer temperature hovering between 19 to 26 degrees Celsius. The Karst landscapes account for more than 85% of the total area of the City, characterizing spectacular scenes of peak clusters, canyons, valleys and caves. The 41.78% high forest coverage makes Guiyang the first "National Forest City" and the "Natural Oxygen Bar" of China. Seventeen long-dwelling ethnic minorities including Miao, Bouyei and Gelao have been co-prospering here in harmony, forming a magnificent view of multifarious blooming ethnic cultures.

Illustrious Virtue ·Utmost Goodness ·Extensive Learning ·Earnest Practice

中国 • 贵州 • 贵阳 • 花溪

贵州大学北校区 • 国际教育学院

College of International Education,

Guizhou University (North Campus),

Huaxi, Guiyang, Guizhou 550025, China

Tel.: +86 (851) 83627738

+86 (851) 88292749

E-mail: cie@gzu.edu.cn

www.gzu.edu.cn; cie.gzu.edu.cn